Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—You have only to calculate and find out.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—Have they begun to supply electric lights in Trichur?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—Yes.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—Is it without any agreement that they started lighting?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—I have already answered that question. Under a provisional agreement.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam)—May I know the terms of the agreement?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—The terms I think are the same as are in the draft agreement that has to be completed.

Honorary Visitors—Pulaya Colonies.

159. Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar (Nellayi).—Will the Government be pleased to state the number of visits made by each of the Honorary visitors to the respective Pulaya colonies this year and will copies of the remarks made by them, if any, be placed on this table?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—The names of the Honorary visitors and the number of their visits are given below:—

Mr. K. A. Manu Kurup	Once
„ P. M. Abraham	do
„ T. K. Nayar	do
„ Raman Kartha	do
„ A. V. Moothedan	do
„ C. Madhava Menon	do

2. Copies of the visit notes are placed on the table.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar (Nellayi).— Is there any book kept in the colony for the Hon'ble visitors to write their remarks?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—There was a book. I think it must be there even now.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar (Nellayi).—At least in two colonies where I visited there was no book. Then, is this list exhaustive?

Mr. P. Govinda Menon (Adur).—Is not the Hon'ble Member for Nellayi one of the Hon'ble visitors?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—The list was supplied by the Protector. I regret the omission.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—Will the Government see to this matter?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—Yes. And if there are no books kept, Government will see that they are kept hereafter.

Mr. P. Govinda Menon (Adur).—All these Honorary visitors have made one visit unanimously. Is there any significance in that?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—I do not think there is any significance in that but that each one made only one visit is the fact.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur).—Will the Hon'ble Member kindly inform this House whether visit notes, copies of which are placed on the table, are voluminous documents?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—They are there on the table.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur).—May I know, Sir, the reasons why these visit notes were not printed as appendix and sub-joined to this answer.

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—Government did not think it necessary to have them printed.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur).—Was not an assurance given in one of the previous sessions of the Council that as far as possible in such cases whenever the documents which are to be placed on the table are not of a voluminous nature, they will be printed generally as appendix to the answers themselves?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—But in this particular case, the question put is whether they will be placed on the table.

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur).—That was a definite motion and in answer to that motion Government undertook to follow that practice as far as possible and on that assurance the motion was withdrawn. May I know whether at least in future such papers will be printed whenever it is feasible?

Mr. K. P. Kannan Nayar (Joint Secretary to Government).—Whenever they are found to be feasible they will be printed.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim (Cranganur).—"Feasible" means whenever it is not voluminous.

Mr. E. Ikkanda Warriar (Urakam).—The difficulty arises in this way. As a matter of fact we have been visiting these colonies several times. As there are no books kept, the visitors do not make their remarks. If a book were maintained there, we would note down the remarks that we have to make and come away.

Marketing Scheme.

160. Mr. Popatlal Goverdhan Lalan (Mattancheri North).—Will the Government be pleased to state as to the position of our State with regard to the marketing scheme innovated by the Government of India?

Mr. K. Krishna Warriar (Director of Agriculture).—

A notification about the nature of the marketing scheme was already published in the Gazette and copies distributed to the Hon'ble Members of the Council. The attention of the Hon'ble Member is invited to this publication.

This Government is one of the several Provinces and States that are co-operating with the Government of India in its scheme of marketing.
